The Parker Engineering, Architecture and Technology Experts are a group of students referred to simply as “Petes”. They are upper class men and women who live in Parker Residence Hall and serve as examples, mentors, experts in how to succeed as an OSU CEAT student. They help students locate and utilize available resources, transition to OSU and the challenging majors in CEAT, and get involved on campus and in the college. If you need anything, ask a Pete.